Highlights this week include:

- A collaboration between Scotts Valley startup Soliculture and Santa Cruz startup Cityblooms on a solar panel that could fine-tune light for crops in urban "micro-farms," while simultaneously generating electricity.
- A new makerspace, Fab Lab Santa Cruz, is scheduled to open June 5 in University Business Park on the west side of Santa Cruz.
- A focus on Marine-Tech w/ Monterey Bay Crescent Ocean Research Consortium (MBCORC) on Wed March 25.
- More, below.
