Digest #92

With two exceptions (including a big announcement from Intuvo), the focus this week is on Cabrillo College and UCSC.

Cabrillo received a $1M grant to create a Virtual Net Lab environment for 25 Bay Area community colleges.

UCSC announced plans for the Center of Excellence in Data Science Research. As well, UCSC announced plans for the Center for Innovation and Entrepreneurial Development (CIED) to support faculty and students who want to take their ideas into the marketplace.
